PRESS RELEASE

Semperoper Ballett nominated for the Helpmann Award 2019 in the category »Best Ballet« – Further international recognition for Dresden company

Dresden, 20 June 2019: Semperoper Ballet has been nominated for the Helpmann Award 2019 in the category "Best Ballet" for its performances of »Carmen« at the Adelaide Festival.

Founded in 2001 by the Australian Entertainment Industry Association (AEIA), the annual Helpmann Awards recognize outstanding achievements in various areas of live performance in Australia. The award ceremony takes place in Melbourne on 15 July 2019 and will be broadcast by ABC.

As part of its South Pacific tour, the company presented Johan Inger's interpretation of »Carmen« in Australia on 8, 9 and 10 March 2019. Other nominees for this year's award are West Australian Ballet, The Australian Ballet and Teatro alla Scala together with QPAC.
